What to Do Now

The D-U-N-S Number is created by Dun & Bradstreet as a unique identifier assigned to businesses worldwide. It can be used by federal and state government agencies, suppliers, banks, and potential customers looking to do business with your company. It also enables you to establish your company's Live Business Identity, which represents all the information Dun & Bradstreet collects on your company, now and in the future.

Your D-U-N-S Number Is Important to Your Business Credit File

Getting a D-U-N-S Number is an important first step toward actively establishing and managing your Dun & Bradstreet business credit file. It's important to make sure the information in your business credit file is up to date, since businesses may use it to help them make decisions about doing business with you. Having a well-managed business credit file may help you:

- Improve your cash flow by negotiating better payment terms and insurance premiums
- More easily secure loans, mortgages, equipment leases, and supplier terms
- Demonstrate your credibility when submitting bids and competing for contracts
- Attract new customers who are looking for credible suppliers

Next Steps
